Item 5.07 Submission of Matters to a Vote of Security Holders

On October 27, 2020, Conyers Park II Acquisition Corp (“Conyers Park”) held a special meeting of its stockholders (the “Special Meeting”), at which holders of 46,151,806 shares of common stock (consisting of 34,901,806 shares of Class A common stock and 11,250,000 shares of Class B common stock) were present in person or by proxy, representing 82.05% of the voting power of Conyers Park’s common stock as of the date of the Special Meeting, and constituting a quorum for the transaction of business. The proposals listed below are described in more detail in the definitive proxy statement of Conyers Park, which was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) on October 9, 2020 (the “Proxy Statement”). A summary of the voting results at the Special Meeting is set forth below:

The stockholders approved the Business Combination Proposal, the Charter Proposal, the Governance Proposals, the Incentive Plan Proposal, the Employee Stock Purchase Plan Proposal and the Nasdaq Proposal (each as defined in the Proxy Statement).

The voting results for each proposal were as follows:

The Business Combination Proposal

For	Against	Abstain
38,493,011	7,658,795	0

A list of the names of such directors and executive officers and information regarding their interests in the proposed business combination is included in the definitive proxy statement for the proposed business combination.

Forward Looking Statements

Certain statements in this Current Report may be considered forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements generally relate to future events or Conyers Park’s or the Company’s future financial or operating performance, such as statements regarding the expected benefits of the proposed business combination, the timing and financing of the business combination, and expected future operating results. In some cases, you can identify forward-looking statements by terminology such as “may”, “should”, “expect”, “intend”, “will”, “estimate”, “anticipate”, “believe”, “predict”, “potential” or “continue”, or the negatives of these terms or variations of them or similar terminology. Such forward-looking statements are subject to risks, uncertainties, and other factors which could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward looking statements.

These forward-looking statements are based upon estimates and assumptions that, while considered reasonable by Conyers Park and its management, and the Company and its management, as the case may be, are inherently uncertain. Factors that may cause actual results to differ materially from current expectations include, but are not limited to: (1) the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstances that could give rise to the termination of negotiations and any subsequent definitive agreements with respect to the business combination; (2) the outcome of any legal proceedings that may be instituted against Conyers Park, the combined company or others following the announcement of the business combination and any definitive agreements with respect thereto; (3) the inability to complete the Business combination due to the failure to satisfy other conditions to closing; (4) changes to the proposed structure of the Business combination that may be required or appropriate as a result of applicable laws or regulations or as a condition to obtaining regulatory approval of the business combination; (5) the ability to meet stock exchange listing standards following the consummation of the business combination; (6) the risk that the business combination disrupt current plans and operations of the Company as a result of the announcement and consummation of the business combination; (7) the ability to recognize the anticipated benefits of the business combination, which may be affected by, among other things, competition, the ability of the combined company to grow and manage growth profitably, maintain relationships with customers and suppliers and retain its management and key employees; (8) costs related to the business combination; (9) changes in applicable laws or regulations; (10) the possibility that the Company or the combined company may be adversely affected by other economic, business, and/or competitive factors; (11) the Company’s estimates of expenses and profitability; and (12) other risks and uncertainties set forth in the section entitled “Risk Factors” and “Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements” in Conyers Park’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2019 and other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”).
